PLEDGE FORM

Thank you for supporting The Unbound Bookmaker Project in its endeavor to provide an authorship experience to children all around the Marshall Islands. Your donation will support an entire class to create and publish their class book, and they will each receive a copy of the book. This book will also be available for general sale (at-cost) on Amazon.com by April 2013.

(Organization or Individual) _____ pledges to support The Unbound Bookmaker with $480 to cover the cost of a class book on the topic of _____.

The amount will be due before November 15, 2012, but preferably as early as you or your organization can provide it. Donations can be given in cash or check to the WorldTeach Field Directors. The checks should be made out to WorldTeach. Online donations via all major debit and credit cards, as well as PayPal, can be made by visiting our WorldTeach Donation Page. As a sponsor you will be publicly thanked on the copyright page of the book (we will use the name listed above), as well as on our webpage, <http://www.unboundbookmaker.com/the-unbound-bookmaker-project.html>, unless you state otherwise.

Please return this form and send the cash or check as soon as possible to Field Director Todd Mulroy or Assistant Field Director Ken Hagberg at the WorldTeach office at Ministry of Education in Delap (left of the Marshall Islands Resort, next to WAM).
